CAMP EVERGREEN ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RISK

The undersigned Guest acknowledges that the Guest Group will be responsible to satisfy itself that the participants of any "Activities" (as defined below) at Camp Evergreen have the requisite skill, provide any necessary supervision by responsible persons and see that all individual safety requirements are observed by participants. For the purpose of this Acknowledgement of Risk, "Activities" includes, but is not limited to "Outdoor Activities" and "Equine Activities" as defined on the back of this form.

The undersigned Guest also acknowledges that Camp Evergreen, without assuming any liability, and in the interests of safety, reserves the right, through its employees, to insist upon all appropriate safety rules and procedures to be observed by the Guest Group in the case of any use of Camp Evergreen facilities or in the participation in any Activities. Camp Evergreen may also insist on any degree of supervision that it considers advisable provided by the Guest Group, and Camp Evergreen may also limit or terminate the use of any facilities, or to discontinue any Activities as it may consider advisable.

Each Guest also acknowledges that he or she has read the lists of "Inherent Risks" on the back of this form, fully understands what these Inherent Risks are, fully understands that such Inherent Risks may cause SERIOUS INJURY and POSSIBLE DEATH TO PARTICIPANTS, and acknowledges the possibility of injury, accident, and loss of life that may result from participating in Activities.

The undersigned Guest acknowledges that in the event that he or she requires medication, X-ray, or any other medical treatment whatsoever beyond that which is possible at Camp Evergreen, then the undersigned Guest and Guest Group will be charged with the additional expense of transportation and special care. It is the responsibility of the Guest Group to notify the affected Guest's family.

The undersigned Guest also authorizes the administration of any first aid treatment necessary at Camp Evergreen, and in the case of medical emergency, gives permission to the Physician selected by Guest Group to hospitalize and secure proper treatment for the Guest.

Guests under the age of 18 years require the signature of a Parent or Guardian on this form in order to participate in Activities at Camp Evergreen.

“Outdoor Activities” at or organized by Camp Evergreen shall include any recreational or educational activities, including, but not limited to: equine activities, rock or wall climbing, bouldering, rappelling, canoeing, white water rafting, participation in activities in or near water (including swimming and boating), mountain biking, marksmanship (including the use of archery and sling shot equipment), use of the high- and low-rope courses and the zip line, outdoor cooking and camping, hiking, participation in team-initiative tasks, and participation in sports or games at or organized by Camp Evergreen.

“Inherent Risks” of outdoor activities shall mean those dangers or conditions which are an integral part of outdoor activities, including, but not limited to:

1. The effect of inclement weather on outdoor activities, causing hazardous conditions at activity sites, such as lightning, precipitation, temperature, cold weather, and the effects thereof.
2. Environmental risks unique to each activity, such as the presence of water and water hazards, trees and roots, loose rocks or holds, and fire. Activities are also performed at various heights and therefore contain some element of risk, regardless of safety measures taken.
3. The potential for equipment failure, even when used according to manufacturer’s guidelines.
4. The potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner in a group or individual activity that may contribute to injury to the participant or others, such as participating in activities in an unauthorized manner or without proper supervision, instruction, or safety measures and equipment.

“Equine Activities” at or organized by Camp Evergreen shall include any horse related activity, including, but not limited to: trail and pony rides, riding arena or trail lessons, wagon rides, breeding, training, cattle penning, roping, clinics, shows or gymkhanas, day- or week-long camps, boarding, leasing, horse sales and group programs.

“Inherent Risks” of equine activities shall mean those dangers or conditions that are an integral part of equine activities, including, but not limited to:

1. The propensity of equine to behave in ways that may result in injury, harm, or death to persons on or around them and/or damage to property in their vicinity.
2. The unpredictability of any equine’s reaction to such things as sounds, sudden movement, and unfamiliar objects, persons or other animals.
3. The equine’s response to certain hazards such as surface and subsurface objects.
4. Collisions with other equines, animals, people and objects.
5. The potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to the participant or others, such as failing to maintain control over the equine or to act within his or her abilities.
